

I am a satellite radio subscriber and a strong supporter of the services provided there. I do hope that the recent attacks made by FM radio providers on this superior product of satellite radio is dismissed quickly. It is truly a shame that FM radio doesn't simply see the "threat" of satellite radio services like XM as a motivation to IMPROVE their product.